Subject: Meeting Notes - Jan 29

Did I miss anything?

RCMP – Commissioner Lucki, Dep. Commissioner Duheme

- Operational updates,
- Transport Canada has extended NOTAM for area around parliament hill- standard practice for large events.
- GG remains at Rideau Hall, CJSCC is at residence outside of NCR, as per media reports PM is in undisclosed location. EOT receiving elevated protection and increased patrols of Stornoway. s.38 NCR residences of MPs are also receiving increased patrols.
- There has been a noticeable uptick in social media posts advocating violence though no evidence of an underlying plot
- An organized counter protest by climate change activists is being planned for Sunday and have sought a permit from city to protest around convoy.
- With Ministers returning to Ottawa, many are receiving elevated protection and support.
- Biggest outstanding question is what happens after Sunday- expectation is many will need to return to work but some have indicated that they are there until all mandates are removed.
- MMM: two buckets of questions: What does planning for a long term protest look like past Monday and planning for a return to parliament? How do you eventually clear the roads?
 - Security checkpoints for parliamentary precinct will remain in place.
 - If need be, RCMP has additional resources such as armoured vehicles, surge capacity to provide security with PPS
- CBSA indicated that there are 4 protests at POEs, largest being at Coutts AB but they are not having a significant impact on operations
- Highways in New Brunswick are highly impacted by weather and southbound traffic to US

CSIS – David Vigneault

s.38

PCO Comms

- Min Alghabra doing Sunday talk shows and looking for guidance on language on moving the PM to undisclosed location.
